Disposition of Complaint 17-186

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge refused to enforce her orders, allowed her personal feelings to cloud her judgment, and infringed on his religious rights.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

I was told by the judge I could not have my children sleep over because all I had was a 18" blow up mattress for them camping blow up mattress the judge said one

I asked

she said

so my kids was not allowed to sleep over that's been my ex wife lied in court the proof in my file proves her lying. To the judge & under oath

I asked the judge why I could not take my kids to church I got no answer that is infringing on my constitutional rights rights of freedom of religion.

What kind of psychological damage has the judge done to my kids by keeping them from their father for zero reason.

I want you the board to find the evidence in my case file proving I am not a great father to kids AND not giving my constitutional rights of freedom of religion.
