

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 25-111

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

June 10, 2025

The Complainant alleged a superior court judge refused to recuse herself in a family law case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Denise K. Aguilar and Scott H. O'Connor did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on June 10, 2025.

She is refusing to leave even though I have asked her to leave under Rule 6. I get a change of judge once as a matter of right. I have previously alleged that she didn't review evidence before hearing and ruling to dismiss my motion to disregard fraudulent findings and when I brought that up in court, she said be realistic she can't review stuff beforehand then in a clear biased move she reviewed respondent's evidence beforehand at the last hearing, did not review during case.

And then has made it clear. has not given any reason for making the decisions she is making, she hasn't changed.

I need a new judge one that will review all evidence and help a father reunite with his child.
