

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 25-312

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

October 22, 2025

The Complainant alleged a pro tem city court judge sent correspondence with the use of upper- and lower-case letters, contrary to complainant's belief that only capital letters were to be used. Complainant further alleges that the court failed to understand she was only travelling privately.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The allegations of the complaint in this matter solely raised disagreements with legal rulings. The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. "A good faith error of fact or law does not violate this rule. However, a pattern of legal error or an intentional disregard of the law may constitute misconduct." See comment 3 to Rule 2.2 of the Code of Judicial conduct. Any violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct must be proven by clear and convincing evidence.

A mistake in a ruling does not automatically mean that the judicial officer has engaged in judicial misconduct. Judicial officers are required to exercise their discretion in making their decisions. Even if a judicial officer's decision is legally or factually incorrect, the ruling is generally considered to be "legal error" and not "ethical misconduct" that the Commission can address. When a complaint to the Commission solely relates to the correctness of a judicial officer's legal decisions, the Complainant is seeking the Commission to function in the capacity of an appellate court. Correcting legal errors is the role of the appellate courts, not the Commission.

The Commission is a regulatory body with limited jurisdiction. The Commission is not a court, and as such, it does not have any authority to overturn a judicial officer's rulings, intervene in a case, assign a new judge to hear a case, or award any monetary or other relief. The Commission process cannot be a substitute for seeking appellate review.

The Commission reviewed all information submitted by the Complainant and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

A Duty Panel comprised of Commission members Regina L. Nassen, Scott H. O'Connor, and Christopher P. Staring considered this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on October 22, 2025.

COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE

Name: Judge's Name:

Instructions: Use this form or plain paper of the same size to file a complaint. Describe in your own words what you believe the judge did that constitutes judicial misconduct. Be specific and list all of the names, dates, times, and places that will help the commission understand your concerns. Additional pages may be attached along with copies (not originals) of relevant court documents. Please complete one side of the paper only, and keep a copy of the complaint for your records.

I continue to receive correspondence with my actual name with use of upper and lower case letters. It is my understanding that only the ens legis with capital letters is to be addressed and accused in your fictitious realm. To receive letters with my actual name and to be accused of a crime is outrageous. That asside, I have sent an affidavit of truth demanding remedy and I expect to receive it. The City of has had since to send remedy and has yet to do so. Please make sure that everything is being handled according to the correct code of conduct. The City of has put out a warrant for my arrest in the past and held me in their jail without cause. It is my understanding that traffic violations are unarrestable offenses. I don't hold a contract with the state of Arizona for driving and do not fall under the jurisdiction of the court but that didn't inhibit them from taking me from my own private conveyance and holding me under false pretenses. I most recently recieved a letter regarding the loss of driving privilage. I will send that letter to you with this complaint. I have never driven a day in my life and I don't ever plan to. All I ever do is travel in the private. It is apparent to me that many if not most of the individuals working in these courts don't understand the con and therefore aren't qualified to attempt to enact it. Please inform the courts in that the jig is up and to act in accordance with that information. I have undergone a status correction and am now a secured party creditor. I hope you will use that information in order to better correct this situation. My EIN: for my status correction. I expect full remedy for the crimes done against me. Thank you for your help in this mattter and I look forward to your correspondence.

Sincerely,

Beneficiary. Singned with all rights reserved without prejudice and without recourse to me. UCC 1-308
