

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 25-436

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

October 10, 2025

The Complainant alleged a superior court judge appointed two different attorneys which prejudiced his criminal case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The allegations of the complaint in this matter solely raised disagreements with legal rulings. The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. "A good faith error of fact or law does not violate this rule. However, a pattern of legal error or an intentional disregard of the law may constitute misconduct." See comment 3 to Rule 2.2 of the Code of Judicial conduct. Any violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct must be proven by clear and convincing evidence.

A mistake in a ruling does not automatically mean that the judicial officer has engaged in judicial misconduct. Judicial officers are required to exercise their discretion in making their decisions. Even if a judicial officer's decision is legally or factually incorrect, the ruling is generally considered to be "legal error" and not "ethical misconduct" that the Commission can address. When a complaint to the Commission solely relates to the correctness of a judicial officer's legal decisions, the Complainant is seeking the Commission to function in the capacity of an appellate court. Correcting legal errors is the role of the appellate courts, not the Commission.

The Commission is a regulatory body with limited jurisdiction. The Commission is not a court, and as such, it does not have any authority to overturn a judicial officer's rulings, intervene in a case, assign a new judge to hear a case, or award any monetary or other relief. The Commission process cannot be a substitute for seeking appellate review.

The Commission reviewed all information submitted by the Complainant and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

A Duty Panel comprised of Commission members Regina L. Nassen, Scott H. O'Connor, and Christopher P. Staring considered this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on October 10, 2025.

to accuse he () has violated rule 1.2 promoting confidence in the Judiciary; by not avoiding impropriety and the appearance of impropriety. Allowing this error to continue with-out a remedy on at about in court.

This error has violated my 14th United State Constitution Amendment Due process! This error has prejudiced myself in the court of law by "not being impartial in the court process for trial prep and will not allow me to have a fair hearing and trial." Also my freedom of speech was violated by allowing me to speak to attorney who is not representing me, because of the judge error allowing 2 attorneys to be assigned to my case. As a remedy I would request that judge pay a hefty fine with removal from office. Permingly. Thank you for your considerations.
