

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 25-459

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

January 6, 2026

The Complainant alleged a superior court judge improperly divided assets in a divorce case.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Denise K. Aguilar and Colleen E. Concannon did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on January 6, 2026.

Por favor complete solo enfrente de la hoja y guarde una copia de la queja para sus registros.

I was married for _____ years to _____, a well-known musician in _____ and former co-founder of the group "He later founded his own group," "Our divorce was finalized on _____"

Throughout our marriage, my ex-husband's income was primarily from concerts in _____ and was kept in a bank account. When he began touring and gaining fame in the USA, I became aware of him transferring funds to his daughter's bank account. During the divorce proceedings, he presented financial records that appeared tampered with, a fact that my previous lawyer pointed out to the judge. The judge was shown proof of his public persona as a famous musician. The final judgment of the divorce is not aligned with the financial realities of our marriage. The proposed appeal/complaint against a judge would be based on the following: My ex-husband did not fully disclose his assets and earnings. A significant contract, "_____ with four other famous artists, was initiated in _____ and is worth a million dollars or more. The earnings from _____" this Contract appear to have been concealed and were not properly considered in the financial settlement.

I was left with all the marital debt.

The court deducted _____ for home repairs from my portion of the settlement, despite the house being solely in my name.

After an _____-year marriage, my settlement was only about _____, along with alimony of _____ per month for _____ months.

I do not agree with the judge's determination regarding the division of our marital finances.

The settlement does not accurately reflect the length of our marriage or the financial contributions and assets involved.

I am seeking to reopen the case and file an appeal to ensure a fair and equitable division of our finances based on the full disclosure of all assets and contracts.
